Welcome to this month's NST News!

This month, our head of programming reveals why we decided to present Hetty Feather at NST this Christmas and what families can expect from this West End hit. We're also excited to announce our new restaurant partner at NST City, and introduce you to our new Laboratory Associates. We take a closer look at what's coming up at NST Campus which includes a very special performance from BAFTA award-winning comedian Rory Bremner.

'Spell-binding'

Daily Mail

'An utterly magnificent show'

Evening Standard

HETTY FEATHER
21 NOVEMBER 2017 - 7 JANUARY 2018

Dark winter nights are the perfect time for stories and, when combined with families having time to spend together, it's no surprise that this often comes in the form of a trip to the theatre over the Christmas holidays.

Be it a traditional pantomime or a show such as Hetty Feather, the best productions have shared ingredients to create theatrical magic. Read on to find out what Katy Snelling, Head of Programming at NST, considers when she is looking for a Christmas show.

NST City Update

Tyrrells to be Restaurant Partner

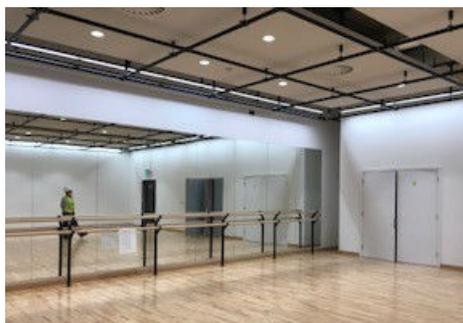

For over one hundred years, Tyrrell and Green was one of Southampton's most famous department store names renowned for its quality and service, with a proudly local Southampton twist.

We're excited to announce that in February 2018, the grand old name will return to Above Bar Street in an exciting new partnership between NST City and Mettricks.

Reinterpreted, but with the very same principles at heart, Tyrrells will bring the finest local food and drink and speciality coffee to the heart of Southampton's new Cultural Quarter.

Finishing Touches

NST City is really starting to come to life now, with the finishing touches taking place; equipment is arriving, the coverings are coming off the mirrors in our rehearsal rooms and we have a working sound system. We can't wait to open the doors to NST City in February 2018!

We haven't been neglecting NST Campus either. We have repainted our bar and café, added fresh table decorations and introduced a brand new menu, making it the perfect place to enjoy a pre-show meal or drink.

Laboratory Update: Meet Our New Associates

We're delighted to welcome three new Laboratory Associates at NST: Ian Nicholson, Laboratory Associate Director; Jasmine Swan, Laboratory Associate Set Designer; and James Whitcher, Laboratory Associate Sound Designer.

Ian is originally from Portsmouth and will be assisting Sam Hodges on the development of a brand new production. Jasmine is currently a 2017 Linbury Prize finalist so is working on her designs for that, which will be showcased at the National Theatre. James will be working on sound design for our upcoming Youth Theatre productions.

Elsewhere...

The Point, Eastleigh: Protein Dance: Border Tales 2 Nov

Following a phenomenal run at the Edinburgh Fringe Festival to sold-out audiences, award winning company Protein presents a thought-provoking yet poignant commentary on multicultural Britain through dance, live music and dialogue compiled from the performers' personal experiences. Border Tales looks at post-Brexit Britain through the eyes of an international cast, and gazes satirically on stereotypical thinking about migrant outsiders and bigoted homelander.
